COSTUME REMINDERS

(because Recital Picture Day is right around the corner!):

Does my child have to wear tights?

If tights are part of your child's costume, then yes, your child needs to wear tights. Make sure that with our little ladies that we are careful not to let them wear underwear or, if they must, that there is no way it will not show.

Can my child wear earrings?

Yes, but we request that they be small studs and nothing that dangles.

Can I polish my child's fingernails?

Clear nail polish is allowed. Absolutely no colors.

How do I style my child's hair?

Ask your child's class teacher. Each teacher has determined a hairstyle preference for each dance.

Must my child wear makeup?

We strongly encourage dancers to wear some makeup onstage, especially blush, mascara, and some lipstick. The lights are very bright and can completely wash out the dancer's face.

Do I need to label my child's shoes and costumes?

Absolutely! Be sure to wipe off your child's shoes and put his/her name in the arch of their shoe or on a tag somewhere so that it can be identified. Also label the tag of your child's costume and costume parts (extra skirts, tights, etc). Please bring them in the garment bag you received the costume in and bring his/her dance bag to help keep up with his/her items. Make sure everything is labeled!

Can my child eat and drink while waiting to dance?

Please do not allow your dancer to eat or drink anything that will stain while wearing a costume.

NEW PARENT FACEBOOK GROUP!
